Combination of lectures and seminars)
授業の目標
The course aims at shedding light, from a practitioner's point of view, on a number of aspects of international dispute settlement, drawing in particular on the case study of Whaling in the Antarctic (Australia v. Japan : New Zealand intervening) before the International Court of Justice.
授業の概要
This is an intensive course spread over 5 days. The introduction to international law including the basic framework of international dispute settlement will be provided on Day 1, which will be followed by a case study, Whaling in the Antarctic, conducted in a series of seminars from Day 2 onwards. In the seminars, participants will be assigned to make presentations.
キーワード
International Law, Settlement of Disputes, Whaling in the Antarctic case.
