

INVITATION

We cordially invite you to a lecture by Dr. Klemen Lah titled "Slovenian Literary Heroes – Reflections of Slovenian Collective Consciousness." This lecture will explore famous Slovenian literary heroes and uncover the characteristics of Slovenian national identity they embody.

Date and Time: Friday, December 20, 2024, at 19:30 (JST) and 18:30 (CST)

Join Zoom Meeting: <https://uni-lj-si.zoom.us/j/96949380460>

Dr. Klemen Lah is a teacher, literary historian, publicist, and translator. He graduated in Slovene Language and Literature and Sociology at the Faculty of Arts in Ljubljana and earned a master's degree in Slovene literature in 2003 (receiving the Slovenian Association of Slavists' Prize for the best master's thesis). In 2009, he completed his doctorate at the Faculty of Arts in Zagreb. Dr. Lah is the author of various literary works and a co-author of lexicons (The Great Slovenian Lexicon, Lexicon of Slovenian Literary Characters) as well as textbooks (The Art of Words for high schools and The Journey of Words for vocational schools). His primary research interest is the portrayal of Slovenian literary characters.

You are warmly invited!

Vesna Bukovec, lecturer at Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Metka Lokar, lecturer at Beijing Foreign Studies University