

RELIGION, IDENTITY AND CONFLICT

Consortium for Asian and African Studies Inaugural International Conference

Leiden University, 26-28 August, 2009

DAY THREE: Friday 28th August

Postgraduate Workshop

Location I (Gravensteen 111)

9:00-10:45:

Minorities, Diaspora and Religion

Ms. Kusu Nakajima

Social Cohesion Policy and Education for Minority Ethnic Children in the UK:
A Case Study of Turkish-Kurds'
Community in London

Ms. Shiho Sawai

Ambivalent Marginality: Literary Activities of Indonesian Muslim
Domestic Workers in Hong Kong

Ms. Priya Swami

Who Defines What: Living Hinduisms
in Practice in India and its Diaspora

Discussants: Dr Guita Winkel and Prof Tak-wing Ngo

11:15-12:45

Philosophy, Religion and Politics in the Early 20th Century

Ms. Chie Warashina

Das Heilige in Tensions Between Practical and Scientific Theology

Mr. Dermott Walsh

The Politics of Mediation in Nishida
Kitaro

Mr. Aike Rots

Christian Millenarianism and Nationalism in Prewar Japan: Nakada
Juuji's Politics of Identity

Discussion: T.B.A. and Prof Ab de Jong

Postgraduate Workshop

Location II (Gravensteen 011)

9:00-11:00:

Contemporary Religions and Nations

Ms. Aya Kokaki

Developments of Faith-Based Movements
During and After the February 28 Process in Turkey

Mr. Scott Dalby

Falun Gong Cultivation in Hong Kong,
Taiwan and New York

Ms. Tam Ngo

Conversion, Conflicts, and Contestation:
Christianity and the Hmong in Vietnam

Ms. Edyta Roszko

In Defence of Local Gods: Negotiation
Over Religious Space Between the State and the Village, Central Vietnam

Discussants: Prof Barend ter Haar and Dr. Hennie van de Veere

11:30-12:30

Religion and Identity in Literature

Mr. Enrico Giulia

Power, Legitimization and Shinbutsu
Shugō

Ms. Jung-Shim Lee

Han Yongun's Novelette Death (1924): A
Korean Monk's Fictionalized Nation-
Building Project in Question

Discussion: Prof Ivo Smits and
Dr. Anne Castaing

Organizer:

Dr Kiri Paramore

k.n.paramore@hum.leidenuniv.nl

supported by :

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science International Training Program (ITP); Leiden Institute for Area Studies
Leids Universiteits Fonds